SKIN & BLOOD
Diseases from Pimples to Scrofula Cured by Cuticura.
Hundreds of letters in our possession, copies of which may be had by return of mail, repeat this story: —I have been a terrible sufferer for years from Diseases of the Skin and Blood; have been obliged to shun public places by reason of my disfiguring humors; have had the best physicians; have spent hundreds of dollars, and got no relief until I used the CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have cured me and left my skin and blood as pure as a child's.

COVERED WITH SALT RHEUM.
Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case of Salt Rheum in this country. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the CUTICURA RESOLVENT internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.
J. W. ADAMS, Newark, O.

HEAD, FACE AND BODY RAW
I commenced to use your CUTICURA REMEDIES last July. My head and face and some parts of my body were almost raw. My head was covered with scabs and sores, and my suffering was fearful. I had tried everything I had heard of in the East and West. My case was considered a very bad one. I have now not a particle of Skin Humor about me, and my case is considered wonderful. MRS. S. E. WHIPPLE.
Decatur, Mich.

A FEVER SORE CURED
I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who had been cured by using the CUTICURA REMEDIES of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness or fever eight years ago. He was so bad he was fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but is happy to say he is now entirely well—sound as a dollar. He requests me to use his name, which is H. H. CASON, merchant of this place.
JOHN V. MINOR, Druggist, Gainsboro, Tenn.

Churchill's Powerful Influence Over the Tory Party.

THE LEAP TO A NEW PLATFORM

NEW YORK, Oct 7—The Tribune's London cablegram says Lord Randolph Churchill has accomplished a feat hitherto supposed to be beyond the power of mortal man. He has put the Irish question in the background. His Dartford speech as a political sensation beats everything since Gladstone's conversion to home rule. It is five days since it was delivered. Gladstone himself has spoken in the meantime, but his four columns have passed almost unread, while everybody reads and re-reads Churchill's discussion uninterruptedly. By the political revolution which he has effected in this single discourse he has taken the leadership of the tory party out of Lord Salisbury's hands. He has burned his ships and his idols together. The tory party henceforward is democratic or nothing. It has been for some time doubtful whether the tories had any principles to which they really were attached. But it is doubtful no longer. They have thrown over the whole lot and got a brand new set of books. The tory party was opposed to that method of restoring efficiency to parliament known as land reform in the shape of three acres and a cow, to the abolition of glebe lands and tithes, to local government reform, to that democratic solution of the licensing question known as local option, and to free education. On Sunday morning it discovered that every one of these reforms makes part of its [illegible] programme. It discovered more slowly that it had taken a long step even toward home rule.

CHURCHILL'S PURPOSE

Lord Randolph's plain purpose was to reorganize the tory party on a democratic basis and bring the party and its leaders more closely toward the new democracy. He has done it at a stroke. He risked his own leadership. He took no steps to prepare the party for reconsideration. The result is amazing. The party accepts the new position and new gospel with hardly a murmur. Possibly they do not see that Lord Randolph's doctrine involves the ultimate acceptance of almost the only great measures of reform not now propounded—the reform of the old church and the house of lords. His foreign programme may have even greater immediate consequences. He does something more than echo Premier Tisza's speech: he pledges in express terms not only the sympathy but the support of England to Austria in her anti-Russian Bulgarian policy.

The liberals are indeed in consternation. They accuse Lord Randolph of appropriating the liberal policy and mournfully recognize between the liberal and tory platforms that hardly a difference remains save on home rule. Little now hinders the cementing of a complete permanent alliance between the liberal unionists and the tories.

SALISBURY DOESN'T LIKE IT.

NEW YORK, Oct 7—T. P. O'Connor's cable special to the Star from London of October 6 says: Reports current at the clubs to-night represent Lord Salisbury as restless and dissatisfied at his eclipse by Lord Randolph Churchill. He chafes at the secondary part assigned to him by the press of the country since Churchill's speech. The statement is in circulation that he has intimated his intention to promote a popular measure of reform connected with the peerage, long contemplated but never yet considered within the sphere of practical politics. The reform in question consists of admission to the peers of the right to sit in the house of commons, an innovation that would revolutionize the political system of the United Kingdom.

LORD CHURCHILL'S TRIP

LONDON, Oct. 7—Lord Randolph Churchill authorizes the statement that he has gone to the continent simply to recruit his health; that the trip has no connection with any political mission whatever.

TRIAL OF THE MURDEROUS PRIEST

MADRID, Oct 7—Father Galeote, the priest who killed M. Izquierdo, bishop of Madrid, on Palm Sunday in revenge for having been silenced as a priest, attempted during the progress of his trial to-day to read to the court a long narrative of his grievances against the bishop. The priest was much excited and the court refused to permit the reading and ordered the manuscript left with the judge for further consideration. The prosecution then closed the case. The defense asked for prisoner's acquittal on the ground that he was not responsible for his actions when he killed the bishop. The court reserved its decision.

THE ODIOUS KAULBARS

SOFIA, Oct. —The government has notified foreign consuls at Sofia that Gen Kaulbars, through the Russian consul at Rustchuk, has ordered the military commander there to release political conspirators in his custody, threatening to hold him responsible if he disobeyed, and promising as a reward for compliance promotion to the rank of commanding general when the Russians arrive, and informing him that the penalty of refusal would be reduction to the ranks. The commander informed the troops under his command what he had received and declined the command, and the soldiers applauded his conduct. Gen Kaulbars, on the route to Plevna, summoned the mayor of that city to meet him and urged officials to petition the czar to occupy Bulgaria.

KAULBARS DENOUNCED

SOFIA, Oct. 7—A new newspaper, the Independent Bulgaria, stigmatizes Gen. Kaulbars as a rebel fomenting rebellion among the people and the army. It also urges the government to bind Kaulbars and send him across the frontier.

GREAT STRIKE AT HAVANA.

Thousands of Cigar Makers Out of Employment and Destitute

NEW ORLEANS, Oct 7—A Picayune special from Key West, Fla., says: Havana advices by steamer to-day state that the cigar makers' strike there, which has continued seven weeks, will probably assume a very serious aspect before a settlement is reached. The strike originated in and was confined until Monday to factories working pardito or inferior tobacco, but in consequence of no settlement being reached at an important joint meeting of manufacturers and operatives held last Sunday at the Albia theater, the manufacturers of Vuelta Abajo tobacco joined issue with the others and closed their establishments in order to prevent their operatives from contributing toward the support of the strikers.

The strike has extended to San Diego de Las Vegas, Bejucal, San Antonio, Guines and other interior towns. It is estimated that 20,000 persons who derive a livelihood from the tobacco industry throughout the island are idle, and considerable distress prevails among them. As usual the rough element, taking advantage of the general excitement, is committing depredations. Highway robbery and assassinations occur daily.

Posts have been apprehended for several days by the authorities of Havana, who have taken precaution to keep all available civil guards under arms, while mounted police patrol the city prepared for any emergency.

All sorts of rumors are rife as to the attitude of the volunteers in the event of an uprising, but it is known that they are indifferent and will hold themselves [illegible] many of their members are among the strikers. They assert that they did not volunteer to wage war on their comrades.

Necessity is forcing those who can to leave the island. Every steamer brings a large number of persons here, and during the past month over 1000 have arrived seeking employment.

A delegate from the Havana cigar makers union is now here seeking pecuniary aid from cigar makers. He has been assured of continued contributions during the continuance of the strike.

The following cablegram was received last night at Havana by the president of the cigarmakers union: "The cigarmakers and strippers of San Diego de Las Vegas are out of employment and destitute. Eight hundred men and 300 women are without bread for their families, and ask their brethren in Key West for relief and transportation. Announce this by telegraph to Tampa and New York. Also notify the Knights of Labor."

CINCINNATI, Oct. 7—Latonia fall meeting, fourth day. There was fine weather and a good track and a good attendance.

Fifth race, Palmetto stakes, for three year olds, two miles—Baldwin's entries were expected to work against the other two, and so it seemed as if Silver Cloud was appointed to set the pace, while Mollie McCarthy's Last was to run a waiting race. Montana Regent took second place in the start, and the first mile was made with Silver Cloud leading, Montana Regent, Guenn and Mollie McCarthy's Last following in that order. Silver Cloud at the mile and a half showed weariness and fell out of the race. Guenn took the lead, with Montana Regent third. Guenn lost his place to Montana Regent before the last quarter was entered, and Montana Regent came in winner. Guenn's rider felt so sure of second place that he seemed oblivious to McCarthy's Last, and the latter, almost under the wire, snatched second place, to the utter disgust of Guenn's backers. The finish was: Montana Regent first, Mollie McCarthy's Last second, Guenn third; time 3:34.

Kirk and Pat Farley, democrats, members of the boodle board of aldermen of 1884, whose cases were placed on to-day's calendar of the general sessions court for the purpose of fixing trial days, were on hand to-day with lawyers when the cases were called. Lawyer Newcombe, representing Sayles, asked for a delay, pleading other engagements, and was finally given a week's grace. The other cases were set down accordingly, with the understanding that no further delay would be given. Sayles's trial must proceed on the 18th inst., Farley and Miller's on October 25th, and Kirk's on the first Monday of November, was the peremptory order issued by Judge Cowing, before whom the cases will be brought.

PRISON EMPLOYES INDICTED

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. —The Franklin county grand jury, which has been investigating the alleged stealing by officials under a former administration at the Ohio penitentiary, made a report this morning, but found only two indictments in connection with the prison management, one being against B. H. Marriott, ex-steward, charged with bribery, and one against ex-Superintendent of State Shops Perry for embezzlement.

THE FIRE RECORD

THRILLING SCENES AT A NEW YORK BLAZE

NEW YORK, Oct. 7—Fire broke out this morning in a four story factory building occupied by [illegible] different firms at 71 Bayard street. In three [illegible] manufactories on the fourth floor between [illegible] and seventy men, women and children were at work when the fire occurred. The employes of two establishments found their way at the [illegible] stairway to the [illegible]. The fire was [illegible] them to a quilt factory. The frightened employes then made for the roof of the building, and reaching the flat roof with their clothes on fire gathered. The adjoining factory was a two story house with a peaked roof. With a shriek of terror the men and women flung themselves off. Minnie Rosalinsky, falling in the street on her head, was mortally hurt, her skull being crushed in. She was removed to a hospital. A little boy who was clinging to the coping of the peak roofed house was rescued by an old volunteer fireman with the aid of some citizens and police. Police went upon the roof of tall tenement No. 71, and threw a rope down to factory employes still left hanging on the roof of the burning building, and they were rescued one after another. Others were taken into a window from the peak roofed house. At this time the roof of the factory was on fire, but the firemen were soon masters of the situation. Search showed that nobody had been burned to death. The loss is about $20,000.

A Druggist's Story

Mr. Isaac C. Chapman, druggist, Newburg, N. Y., writes us: "I have for the past ten years sold several gross of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I can say of it what I cannot say of any other medicine. I have never heard a customer speak of it but to praise its virtues in the highest manner. I have recommended it in a great many cases [illegible] best medicine used."

DOMESTIC NEWS.

Developments in the Golden Gate Park Outrage.

THE CENTRAL PACIFIC BRANCH

Gen Miles's Course in the Apache Campaign Approved—Henry George Willed an Estate—A Blaine Demonstration

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7—Recent developments in the park outrage case, in which Louisa Bell was so brutally assaulted, seem to cast a shadow of suspicion on the character of the young woman. It seems that Miss Bell is a grass widow, having been married to a Horace Bell residing in Salem, Oregon, several years ago. Her maiden name is reported to be Louisa Green, and she was deserted by her husband [illegible] Salem. At present she is in care of the sisters at Magdalen asylum, and no one is permitted to see her.

Collins, who is accused of making the first assault, was seen at the city prison this morning, but was still reticent, and only ventured to say that the whole affair was a blackmailing scheme.

"Is it true your father is a wealthy man?" was asked of him.

"There are a dozen men named Collins in this city who are wealthy, and it may be that he is one of them."

"Is it your father one of them?"

"He may be."

When asked who his attorney was he stated that he would have the best defense that money could buy. "You'll see to-morrow, and more than that you may look for something surprising at the preliminary examination."

Chief Crowley received a letter from J. J. Mitchell, agent of Wells, Fargo & Co., stating that Miss Bell had been in his employ for the last five or six months, and he would testify that her character was above reproach.

Baum & Co., having failed to qualify as assignee, attachments were placed to-day on the assets of the concern, and the store is in the custody of the sheriff. Mr. Sweet said this afternoon concerning his failure to qualify that he had ten days yet in which to do so. Attachments were levied by G. H. Thomson, of the Bank of California, for $149,030.95, on twenty three separate pieces of property owned by members of the firm; by H. W. Hyman, of Hyman Bros., 206 Front street, for $25,000; and by Isaac Kohn, of 30[illegible] California, for $45,000, upon the same property.

THE CENTRAL PACIFIC'S EXTENSION

More About the Proposed New Line into Eastern Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. —The proposed extension of the Central Pacific road into Eastern Oregon, particulars of which have been telegraphed THE OREGONIAN, is attracting marked attention. The papers here look upon the scheme as a good one, one that will offset to some extent the trade California lost by the opening up of the Northern Pacific. A railroad man yesterday stated that the California & Oregon road was not being pushed through Siskiyou county for the object with which the Southern Pacific company has generally been credited, that of extending the line to a connection with the Oregon & California and forming a through rail route from San Francisco to Portland.

Mr. Huntington, said he, has a better plan in view than that which the public believes is to be carried out. His agents have secured three large line grants for right of way, running from Siskiyou county in this state through the counties of Klamath, Lake, Grant and Umatilla in Oregon. He knows that there is more profit in developing such a vast territory as that in Eastern Oregon than there is in simply running a line up the coast to divide traffic with another line. He will therefore cause a deflection from the route originally chosen from Upper Soda Springs, present terminus of the California & Oregon. The line has been surveyed up the Klamath river, which it will cross at Scott's Bar. From the latter point surveys running between upper and lower Klamath lakes near Linkville have just been completed, with the intention of running the line along up Eastern Oregon between the Cascade range and the Blue mountains, crossing the Oregon Short Line at Pendleton, and then proceeding on to a connection with the Northern Pacific. Throughout the entire territory traversed by this route there is an immense grain acreage, all of which will be tributary to the new road, and which is now without transportation facilities. The grain and other products will find a market in this city, and there will be a good run of traffic throughout the year. Much of the trade of Idaho and Eastern Oregon will be diverted from Portland to San Francisco, and as the California & Oregon will have a long haul it can afford to prorate with the Northern Pacific on through freight from the East.

GEN. MILES'S COURSE APPROVED

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7—Ex-Gov. Tuttle of Arizona was in the city yesterday. In regard to the removal of the Indians by Gen. Miles from the territory he said: "The removal of the Indians was demanded by the Arizona association of pioneers and by every newspaper in the territory for many years, and in every annual report made by me under Arthur's and Cleveland's administration I asked for the same, and Secretary Lamar in making his report to congress last year embodied my recommendations, thereby endorsing them."

"Do you think Gen. Miles was to blame for making a compromise with Geronimo?"

"No, I do not. I think Miles pursued the only possible course to secure peace in the territory. It was always Gen. Crook's opinion, and always mine, that the capture of Geronimo on any terms and the removal of him and his men was essential to permanent peace. If these Indians had been forced to surrender unconditionally as the government demanded, which it would have been almost impossible to make them do, and had been given a legal trial for their crimes, what good would it all have done? No witnesses were alive to prove their guilt, and they would have been cleared for want of evidence, that is if they had not escaped before the trial and resumed their bloody operations."

HENRY GEORGE WILLED AN ESTATE

NEW YORK, Oct. —Henry George received the following letter yesterday:

CAMDEN, N. J., [illegible]

Dear Sir: The late George Hutchins, of Blue Anchor, this state, left the bulk of his property to [illegible] known by the name of [illegible] to be used by you for the express purpose of spreading the light of social and political liberty and justice to the United States of America [illegible]. This will was filed in the office of the surrogate of Camden county, and a caveat against admitting the same to probate was filed by some relatives of Hutchins, and the matter will come up for hearing in the course of a few weeks. I represent the executor, and [illegible] think you should have notice of this matter so that you can be heard if you think proper. Yours sincerely, A. VROOM.

The estate, which consists chiefly of real estate and a number of shares of Northern Pacific preferred stock, worth at present sixty two and a half cents on the dollar, is valued at about $10,000.

THE COTTON CROP

MEMPHIS, Oct. 7—The weather during September has been favorable. Heavy rains prevailed after the 17th, which did some damage and delayed picking in some localities. The season, however, has been more favorable than last year up to this period, except in Mississippi, where too much wet weather is complained of. Picking is progressing rapidly throughout the district, and it is estimated that 45 per cent of the crop had been gathered up to the 1st of October. Damage to the crop from drouth, shedding and rust sustained in August has not been as great as in unfavorable seasons, and the prospective yield of the district shows an increase of fully 7½ per cent as compared with last year. Arkansas and Tennessee show more favorable prospects. In the former state the increased yield is placed at 16⅔ per cent, Tennessee at 19 per cent, Alabama at 2½ per cent, while Mississippi shows a decrease of 1¼ per cent.

BLAINE TO HAVE A DEMONSTRATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A Pittsburg dispatch says: The proposed demonstration on October 20, in honor of Blaine, is attracting the attention of all republicans throughout western Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio, and western Virginia. It was intended to have Blaine speak in the Fifth Avenue Music hall, but already the demand for tickets of admission is so great that the county committee will probably decide on a grand daylight parade and public reception to Blaine. It is proposed to hold the meeting in Exposition [illegible] of 6,000 people can hear and 10,000 can [illegible].

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Second Day of the Convention at Chicago—Important Questions Discussed.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—This morning delegates to the Protestant Episcopal convention attended morning service, Rev. Hobart Chetwood of Oakland, California, officiating, and Rev. John Scarborough pronouncing the benediction.

The business convention was called to order shortly after 10 o'clock. President Dix then announced members of the standing committees.

At 11 o'clock the regular order of the day was taken up, which was the resolution offered yesterday by Dr. Huntington providing for a committee of five bishops, five clerical and five lay delegates, to whom should be referred all resolutions with reference to the subject of liturgical revision. The discussion was opened by Dr. Huntington, who spoke in support of his resolution. Other speeches followed and the convention adjourned at 1 o'clock.

THE HUNTINGTON RESOLUTION ADOPTED

Upon reconvening the secretary of the convention was added to the committee on expenses, and it was ordered that all questions of expenses be referred to this committee for consideration.

A resolution introduced in the house of bishops proposed the appointment of a committee of conference upon all memorials presented to either house, to report no later than the tenth day of the session, touching resolutions contained in a book entitled "Notifications to dioceses of alterations and additions to the book of common prayer." Mr. Parker's substitute was withdrawn and Judge Shelley of Virginia took the floor and argued against the unparliamentary practice of appointing a conference and not a joint committee. He favored the Huntington resolution providing for a joint committee of five from each order, and that resolution was unanimously adopted.

Various memorials were presented relating to liturgical revision.

Dr. Adams offered a constitutional amendment providing for a reduction of one half of the representation in the convention.

Dr. John W. Hopkins created a flurry by offering a resolution which was in effect that the church was willing to receive into the union any congregation using any liturgy that ever has been used in any branch of the Holy Catholic and Apostolic church in any age, and that the church is also willing to receive any congregation of Christians who accept the faith as set forth by the general councils, who have a ministry of apostolic succession, who have received confirmation at the hands of the bishops, and who use only the valid forms in the administration of the two great sacraments of baptism and the holy eucharist. Referred, without debate, to the committee on state of the church.

THE CHURCH'S NAME

Mr. Judd, of Chicago, offered a resolution that as the name of the church appeared too narrow and exclusive to express the whole scope of the body, such name be expunged and proper legislative action taken to that end.

Judge Shelley declared that the time had not yet come for the general conference to denounce the name of 'Protestant Episcopal' and expunge it from church nomenclature. The resolution was put on the calendar.

A resolution for removal of the corporate title of the church from the title page of the prayer book was tabled.

Dr. Adams of Wisconsin offered a resolution that the church in the United States should be called the American Catholic church. A motion to discuss the question failed [illegible]. Adjourned till to-morrow.

The house of bishops completed organization to-day. Standing committees were appointed [illegible] on the prayer book and amendments to the constitution. This constituted the day's proceedings.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR

RICHMOND, Oct. —At the closing of the morning session of the Knights of Labor matters were exactly in the same position as they were last night. Discussion of the Morrison case was resumed immediately after the opening of the session and was continued until adjournment for dinner. The hour of adjournment is 10 o'clock, but it was nearly 1 o'clock before recess was taken.

When the afternoon session began, the Morrison case was again taken up, and it was expected that it would be disposed of within an hour, and that the case of the St. Louis delegation will then be proceeded with next. It is not expected that this case will occupy much time, as no issues such as were presented in the Morrison case are involved.

At the afternoon session the discussion of the report of the committee on credentials in the case of the delegation from district assembly 126 of New York, headed by John Morrison, was continued, and it was finally decided to admit the delegates from that district, with the exception of Mr. [illegible], who was rejected, and his alternate substituted for him. This result was reached about 4 o'clock. As the committee on credentials desired further time for consideration of the case of the contesting delegations from St. Louis, the rules were suspended and the convention proceeded to discuss the question of giving the support of the order to the locked out cotton workers of Augusta, Ga., the tanners of Peabody and Salem, Mass., and the journeymen plumbers of New York. There are 3000 men in each of the first named bodies and about 1400 in the last. It was decided to support them.

It was 5:30 when this business was concluded, and recess was taken to 7:30 P.M., it being decided to hold an evening session to consider the report of the committee on credentials, which it was expected would be ready at that hour.

During the session the following telegram was received by Mr. Powderly from Pittsburg, Pa.: "The National Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers pause sufficiently long to send you and your noble Knights fraternal greetings. May success attend your every effort, and may the power and influence of organized labor march on uninterruptedly until its aim and object are fully attained."

THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

DES MOINES, Oct. —There was an immense audience at the Opera house when President Mark Hopkins called the meeting of the American board to order. A special committee recommended Springfield, Mass., as the next place of meeting. The report was adopted.

Rev. Dr. Lamson, chairman of the committee on missions, recounted the progress of work in Turkey.

President Bartlett of Dartmouth college then read the report of the committees appointed to review Dr. Alden's report on home work, including the conduct of the prudential committee in rejecting candidates for missions who believed in future probations. Dr. Bartlett followed in support of the report. The discussion was prolonged until the noonday adjournment.

GUIDES SAY THERE WERE NO CONDITIONS

NOGALES, A. T., Oct. —Billy Long and Jack Wilson, two guides who were with Lawton throughout the Apache war and who were present at the time Geronimo surrendered, state that there were no conditions stipulated further than that the Indians would be taken to Fort Bowie in safety and should not be harmed by either American or Mexican troops. It is well known in this locality that Lawton was firm in his demand for unconditional surrender, and citizens feel grateful to Gen. Miles and Capt. Lawton for having been the means of ridding the territory of these murdering savages.

It is said Panale will plead non-jurisdiction in the case, as he was in Mexico when the act was committed.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

WEST POINT MEN FIGHTING MILES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7—The Post this morning says: It cannot be discovered that anything has been said officially at the war department to justify the report that Gen. Miles disobeyed orders and made terms with Geronimo, but it is said that certain officials in the department, while not positively giving out the reports, have encouraged the publication of these strictures on Miles, in order to favor Crook, who seems to meet with special consideration from some quarters because he was a West Point graduate, while Miles is a volunteer soldier.

ARMY HEADQUARTERS CHANGED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7—A general order has been prepared at the war department changing the headquarters of the department of Dakota from Fort Snelling to St. Paul, Minnesota, November 1, and headquarters of the division of the Pacific from the Presidio to San Francisco, on the same date.

THE ANARCHISTS.

The Judge Overrules a Motion for a New Trial.

SPEECHES BY THE DOOMED MEN.

They Assert that They are to be Hanged Because They are Anarchists, not Murderers—The Prosecuting Officers Denounced

CHICAGO, Oct. 7—Judge Geary, in the criminal court this morning, overruled the motion for a new trial in the cases of the eight anarchists charged with the Haymarket massacre, and confirmed the verdict of the jury that Spies, Parsons, Fielding, Schwab, Engel, Fisher and Lingg should be hanged and that Neebe should suffer imprisonment for fourteen years in the state penitentiary. The court did not conclude his decision until 12:30 o'clock, and owing to the interruption of counsel for the prisoners he deferred passing sentence upon them until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Judge Geary in delivering his decision reviewed at considerable length all of the evidence brought out at the trial, and said: "The case is unprecedented. There is no example of such a crime having been committed. There is no precedent of any case like this having become the subject of judicial investigation, but the principle of law is well fixed. I think upon the whole proof that no case could be tried of such magnitude as this with less in the way of irregularity of proceeding in trial than was done in this case."

This afternoon when Judge Geary asked the prisoners whether they had anything to offer why sentence should not be passed upon them, Spies stepped forward and began reading a prepared speech. While it is not known with any degree of certainty, it is stated that December 3 will be the date named for the execution.

REMARKS BY SPIES

Spies commenced by saying: "Your honor, in addressing this court I speak as a representative of one class addressing a representative of another. I will begin with words addressed 500 years ago on a similar motion by a Venetian doge, who, addressing the court, said: 'My defense is your accusation. The cause of my alleged crime is in your history.' I have been indicted on a charge of murder as an accomplice or accessory. Upon this indictment I have been convicted. There was no evidence produced by the state to show, or even to indicate, that I had any knowledge of the man who threw the bomb, or that I myself had anything to do with it. Not the slightest evidence was ever produced to show that I had anything to do with the throwing of the missile, unless you believe the testimony of the accomplices of the state's attorney and Bonfield, the testimony of Thompson and Gilmer. If there was no evidence to show that I was responsible for it, then the execution of the verdict is nothing but wilful, malicious and deliberate murder, as foul a murder as may be found in the annals of religion, political or any other sort of prosecution."

Spies then reviewed the evidence presented by the prosecution and charged the state's attorney and Bonfield with conspiracy to commit murder. Spies devoted some time to discussion of socialism, and said: "You want to stamp out a conspiracy. You resemble a child that is looking for his picture behind a mirror. What you see and what you try to grasp is nothing but the creation of your own dead consciences. If you want to stamp out conspiracies and agitators you must stamp out every factory lord who has made wealth upon the labor of his employes, and the landlord who has made money from the ground down and oppressed laborers and farmers. If you think you can crush out ideas which are gaining ground every day by sending us to the gallows, if you can suppress truth, for that is all we have been preaching, you will fail."

Then flourishing his arms wildly, Spies fairly shrieked: "I shall die proudly defiantly for the cause of justice. There is Socrates, there is Galileo, there is Giordano Bruno, there is Christ. Why, the number cannot be estimated of those who have trodden in this path, and we are ready to follow them."

SCHWAB AND OTHERS

Michael Schwab then took the floor. In a stentorian tone of voice he began: "It is not much I have to say, and I would say nothing at all did not a fear that silence would look like cowardly approval of what has been done here. I am condemned to die for writing newspaper editorials." The anarchist then went on to justify these articles by going over in detail all the real or imaginary evils of the accumulation of capital and injustice of the relations between the employer and the employed. Then followed a disquisition on the principles and theories of socialism and anarchism. He concluded by disavowing all knowledge of the man who threw the bomb, and protested that he intended to do no violence at Haymarket.

Oscar Neebe, the next speaker, had no sooner taken the floor than he burst into violent abuse, calling State's Attorney Grinnell a cur and his assistants, Messrs. Walker and Furthmann, scoundrels, and saying there was only one gentleman in the crowd, and that was Ingham. The police were assailed in peculiar phraseology, and in short, Neebe's speech was a tirade of abuse, vilifying the police and authorities. Abandoning himself to a wild appeal to the judge to hang him with the others, he cried: "It would be more honorable to be strangled by the neck than to die by inches. My wife and children will then be at ease some time, but they can never get over it if their husband is sent to Joliet. Hang me, your honor, with my comrades."

Adolph Fisher came next. He commenced: "Your honor, you ask me to say why sentence of death should not be passed upon me. I protest against my being sentenced to death, because I have committed no crime. I was tried in this jury-room for murder, and I was convicted for anarchy. I don't deny that I was one of the parties who summoned this meeting in Haymarket, but I know no more about the throwing of the bombs than Grinnell does. I do not deny that I got up the circular and had the line put in calling for workingmen to come armed. I had my reasons. I am not convicted because I am a murderer; I am convicted because I am an anarchist. I have never been a murderer, but I know a certain man who is on the way to becoming a murderer, and that is State's Attorney Grinnell, because he has placed men here upon the stand who he knew would swear falsely in a case where eight lives were at stake. An anarchist loves his principles better than his life, and I am prepared to die for principle, on account of holding which I am to be sentenced to death. This is all I have to say."

THE BOMB MAKER

It is Lingg, bomb-maker, expressed a wish to have his say in German. An interpreter was placed at his service. He began: "I am now granted the privilege to speak. If I do speak it is because indignities have been heaped upon me in this court." Lingg declared that it had not been proved that any bomb made by him had been taken to Haymarket. He accused the police of stealing his books and clothing in the station and then perjuring themselves against him on the witness stand. "Grinnell," shouted Lingg, "has connived with miserable people to get evidence to kill me, when he knows I was driven to the course I have pursued to gain an education for my brothers, to lift them up." As the youthful anarchist slowly progressed with his speech his form seemed to swell and dilate with the intensity of his feelings. His frame shook with passion, and his guttural voice poured forth a torrent of emphatic sentences in his native language. He strode impatiently back and forward while the interpreter translated each sentence, and occasionally emphasized his words by violent blows on a little table in front of him. At last, turning fiercely to the state's attorney, Lingg roared: "You smile because you think I will never use a bomb again. I die willingly on the gallows with the same contempt for death that I have for your laws."

Capt. Black here asked the court to adjourn, as the time for doing so had arrived, and Engle and some of the others desired to speak. The court adjourned till 10 A. M. to-morrow.

PATERNAL GOVERNMENT.

One might suppose, from the abundance of talk on the subject, that there was a rapidly growing disposition among large numbers of people in this country to throw themselves on the state for support, not indeed avowedly in forma pauperis, but upon some principle which would bind the state to general superintendence of the industry, the property and the well-being of the people, including administration of all affairs for the good of the whole. There is, unquestionably an apparent tendency to suppress individualism and to lean upon the state, but the tendency may be more apparent than real. Small numbers, busy with loud voices, may be mistaken for multitudes, and opinions that are novel may obtain wide circulation because they excite curiosity, while in fact obtaining no real lodgment in the general mind.

Nevertheless we do hear much in these times from persons who instead of looking to their own energies of mind and body for resources that will enable them to make their way in the world, are disposed to look to the state, and there are undoubtedly considerable numbers even in our country who during recent years have begun to entertain a vague idea that somehow a re-organization of society may be effected, under which their condition may be materially improved. The root of this is a rebellious feeling at what is called unequal distribution of property, coupled with a notion that the lives of those whose dependence is labor may be made easier if the state will interpose with its power to counteract this unequal distribution, and there also attends this notion a yearning to get rid of the responsibilities of individual life. Men want the state to take care of them and leave them no concern about the matter.

Since this scheme would practically suppress individuality as an instrument or element of well-being, its consequences might easily be foretold. Every step of progress depends on the personal development of individual energies; whatever tends to increase human dependence tends also to increase human helplessness destruction of self would mean suppression of spirit, of thought, of activity, it would lead to disregard of work, to abandonment of interest in personal concerns, and even to weariness of life Under such a scheme the prime incentive to individual exertion could no longer exist Men will put forth their best efforts only upon the condition that the results thereof are to belong to themselves, for their full enjoyment and control. Until he abandons his individuality, which he would do by surrendering it to the state and sinking himself in the mass, every man sees possibilities in himself, and will strive to reach them. The scheme of "socialism" would substitute for this spirit the habit of indolence, dependence and listlessness it would stop the development of man's energies, because it would take away the great incentive thereto, the poor, sure of being cared for, would have no incitement to action and the rich, beset by a system that would first stop increment of property and then strip them of their possessions, would withdraw from all enterprise, and general paralysis of social and industrial life would be the consequence No other plan for a lapse into barbarism half so effective could be devised.

"Theory of Property" is the subject of many written essays in these times,—and the title itself is significant It implies that property doesn't rightfully belong to those who call themselves its owners, but should belong to the state, and be administered for the common good. Essays on the "Ownership of Land" are particularly frequent,—the inference from the title being that land cannot rightfully belong to private owners. Henry George, candidate for the mayoralty of New York, is just now a somewhat conspicuous figure, owing his prominence to his theories of property His fundamental theory is that private property in land is wrong, and he endeavors to support it by discussion of rents, wages, taxes, and all the various phases of economic and fiscal policy The fallacies of his leading assumptions were pointed out very clearly by Dr. W. T. Harris, of Concord, Mass., in a discourse delivered before the American Social Science association, at its recent session at Saratoga. Mr. George wants to confiscate the income from land, on the assumption that rent plays a large part in the cost of living and wages, and therefore is the chief instrument in the oppression of labor. But Dr Harris shows that the assumption is erroneous A calculation based upon property values throughout the United States, as shown by the last census, discloses the fact that at 3 per cent. interest the entire rental of land, exclusive of buildings, is but two cents a day for each inhabitant. Now the total production of the people in the year 1880 was $197 10 for each person for the year, or fifty-four cents each for each day. This, according to Dr Harris, shows the status of the question Two cents a day for ground rent and fifty-two cents for other things. Two cents a day—the part paid for the rent—would not materially change the situation. Again, Mr. George does not distinguish between land for agriculture and land for building lots—an omission that in itself renders nugatory the whole argument. But, as a writer in the Andover Review says "The dreadful nature of Mr George's proposition lies in its effect, which would be to carry society back to the sort of the village community, when there neither was nor could be any development of originality in the way of culture of thought or business because of the entanglement of one's personality with the personality of the family or community"

This is the conclusion to which we must come at [illegible] into the subject. [illegible] in self [illegible] personal energies on the one hand, [illegible] ance on [illegible] the [illegible] fully the activities [illegible] and [illegible] care of [illegible] will be the [illegible] equality [illegible] the name of [illegible] energy by [illegible] within [illegible] the name of freeing [illegible] a despotism that would [illegible] and barbarism.

MAKING ANOTHER EFFORT.

Creditors of Ben Holladay Pool their Issues and Make a Combined Effort to Get their Dues.

A bill in equity was filed in the United States circuit court yesterday in the case of Albert G Bogert, John G Bogert John L. Pinkerton and others against Ben Holladay, Joseph Holladay, H. Y Thompson, C B. Bellinger and George Weidler The bill is a voluminous one and in the first dozen or so of pages goes on to recite that at various times the plaintiffs recovered judgment against Ben Holladay for various sums amounting in the aggregate to some [illegible] and that the executions had been issued and placed in the hands of the sheriffs of Multnomah Clatsop Washington and Polk counties, which executions had been returned and filed as wholly unsatisfied

It is further shown that on the 6th of September 1886, executions on each of said judgments were placed in the hands of the sheriff of Multnomah county for service and have not been returned The bill then details all the transfers of property made by Ben to Joe and Weidler and alleges that they were without consideration and contrary to equity

And it is further shown that C B Bellinger and H Y Thompson claim some interest in the property the exact nature of which is not known wherefore they are therefore made defendants

It is further shown that on the 4th of September 1886 Ben Holladay and wife delivered to George Weidler a pretended deed whereby Ben Holladay pretended to convey to Weidler a large portion of his property upon certain trusts described That said deed was made without consideration and was intended to delay and defraud plaintiffs which was fully known to Weidler whose rights under the deed are subordinate and subject to those of plaintiffs

Wherefore as plaintiffs are without remedy in the courts of law and can only have relief in a court of equity they pray that they may be adjudged to receive from Ben Holladay the amounts of their respective judgments and that the several conveyances transfers, and deliveries of the property to Joe Holladay and George Weidler respectively be adjudged and declared as fraudulent and void as against these plaintiffs and that Joe Holladay and George Weidler be deemed to hold all of said property in trust for these plaintiffs Counsel for plaintiffs are Henry Ash, K. BOYS AND GIRLS AID SOCIETY

To the citizens of Portland The Boys and Girls aid society organized under an act of the legislature of the state of Oregon has now been in active operation about one year During this time the officers have been very busy in caring for the boys and girls, many of them taken from the district and police courts of this and other counties of the state many of these having been provided with good homes while the most refractory ones have been sent to California to a state society to be cared for at a considerable expense to the home society. We desire to enlarge our work by employing a competent superintendent with suitable headquarters and to establish a home in our own state But until our legislature sees fit to aid us with an appropriation the society has no means of raising the funds except by voluntary contributions and to this end a canvass of the city will be made for membership and contributions by a thoroughly reliable party

Trusting that our citizens will respond as liberally as the times will permit. We are yours, etc.,

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Cornelius Ryan, at one time proprietor of the Nicolai house, and latterly of the St Lawrence hotel, was found dead in his room, at 128 B street yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Mary Mulvaney, the occupier of the house, states that Ryan came home late Wednesday night and retired. Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock she went to his room and found he was not yet up. A half an hour or so afterwards her son J. Mulvaney, a young man about 21 years of age, entered the room by means of a window and discovered Ryan dead in bed. He notified Coroner DeLin, who proceeded to the scene and took charge of the remains. Dr McKenzie examined the body and gave it as his opinion that death resulted from heart disease. An inquest was held early in the evening and a verdict rendered by the jury to that effect. Mr Kelly, who keeps the Vacuna house, states that Mr Ryan left his place yesterday morning in his usual health, hadn't drank anything. In fact was a man who seldom ever touched anything of an intoxicating nature. Mrs. Mulvaney also states that the deceased was a man of excellent habits and she never knew him complaining of anything worse than a cold until Wednesday morning, when he complained of feeling somewhat unwell. Ryan was a native of the parish of Ballywilliam, county Tipperary, Ireland, and at the time of his death was 36 years of age. He had been in Portland some sixteen years, seven years of which he drove a carriage for H. W. Corbett. Dennis Connelly and Sarah Egan, cousins of the deceased, wired Ryan's brother and sister at Auburn, New York, of his sudden death, and the body will most probably be shipped to that place. Cornelius Ryan during his residence in Portland made many friends and was an industrious man and a good citizen. His sudden taking off is not surprising in view of the fact that his father and grandfather on his father's side both died of heart disease. Deceased left an estate of the value of about $5000.

THE END NOT YET.—The jury in the case of Fred Kittner vs. Watson, Wright & Co., on trial yesterday in the state circuit court, department No 2, brought in a verdict for the defendant by instruction of Judge Shattuck. This is an old case and has been before the courts in many different shapes for three years. Kittner ran a store in Plainsville, W. T., in company with a partner named Carson, and failed. He came to Portland and was arrested by Watson, Wright & Co in Justice Greene's court as an absconding debtor and sent to the county jail, where he was confined some time. About the time of the arrest the county clerk issued a writ ordering the sheriff to put Kittner under $3000 bonds. To make a long story short, Kittner after his release sued Watson, Wright & Co for $10,000 damages, and the jury gave him a verdict for $7000. One of the allegations in the complaint in the damage suit was that the writ issued at the time of Kittner's arrest requiring him to give a $3000 bond was invalid, inasmuch as he didn't owe Watson, Wright & Co that amount of money and such a bond shouldn't have been required to secure his release, etc. The verdict of the jury was set aside by Judge Smith and the bond held to be valid, this being one of the reasons for setting aside the verdict. Yesterday when the case came up this bond question was again one of the issues. Judge Shattuck decided that he would like to see the question of the validity of the bond passed upon by the supreme court, as while not expressing an opinion he didn't sit as an appellate court and didn't wish to decide over a predecessor of equal jurisdiction with himself. This means that before anything further can be done the case will have to be appealed, Judge Shattuck refusing to set aside any of Judge Smith's rulings.

SALEM POLICE EMBROGLIO.—Talk about our Gander ridge war! It was a mere tea party when compared with the picnic they are having at Salem over police matters, and the city fathers, though realizing they are in too deep, instead of pulling for the shore are striking out for greater depths, and trouble has as yet hardly commenced. They bounced Policemen Mead and Lynch because they would not raid the gambling houses, and the city marshal suspended Policeman Cavanaugh because he would raid them. The council in turn reinstated Cavanaugh and elected a man named Townsend as policeman, who not having resided here a sufficient length of time could not qualify. At a regular meeting held on Tuesday evening they elected another stranger named Morley, who it is since learned is not a citizen, and not only that, but a warrant has been issued and Morley arrested and under bonds to appear for trial upon the charge of illegal voting at the last election. Councilman Albert and Bob Ford are on his bonds. Morley's competitors for the place are literally camping on his track and propose to defeat him at least. The council will hold a special meeting to-morrow evening, when the matter will again come up. Available candidates are in demand, but none it is understood need apply who has resided in that city over twenty-four hours. Old residents and tax payers are considered ineligible. In this connection the query arises: If one democratic councilman can kick up such a row in city affairs, where would it stop should there ever happen to be a majority of that honorable body elected from the ranks of the unterrified? The circus will be on exhibition again in that city this evening, the performance commencing at 7 o'clock sharp, and the fun promises to be fast and furious.

SUIT FOR POSSESSION OF A GIRL.—A case involving the right to the care and custody of Louisa A. Kelly, a minor child, was before Judge Stearns yesterday. The child is the daughter of Mrs Cora A. Holsapple by a former husband. Recently Mrs Holsapple and her present husband Charles Holsapple separated, Mrs Holsapple leaving the child with her aunt Mrs Capt Biles and going over to Seattle. She returned a day or two ago and took the girl from school, and according to all accounts was about to take her out of the state. Mrs Biles made objection to Mrs Holsapple taking Louisa, claiming she didn't care properly for her, etc., and sued out a writ of habeas corpus for possession of the girl. Pending the proceedings on the writ the court made an order that Charles Holsapple have the child.

THEY BOTH DIED.—The case of J. H. Garrigan vs. G. F. Nottage and others was heard in Judge Stearns's court yesterday without jury and taken under advisement. This is an old case and has quite a history. It goes something about as follows: Fifteen years ago a suit for divorce was pending between Garrigan and his wife, and at the time he transferred her a lot of property. Before the divorce suit was decided Mrs Garrigan died, and G. F. Nottage became her administrator. Subsequently Garrigan sued to recover the property, and previous to that suit being disposed of he died. The heirs of Mr and Mrs Garrigan are now continuing the case to determine what disposition shall be made of the property.

COLD DAY FOR GAMBLERS.—Sheriff Minto of Marion county passed through the city yesterday on his way home from Arlington, to which place he went to arrest a gambler named Sump Jones, who was wanted for violating the law in regard to gambling by practicing his profession at Salem during fair week. Sheriff Minto got his man, who gave bonds for his appearance to answer to the charge. It looks as if the gambling fraternity were in the deep waters of affliction about this time and were being gone after in all directions. As one of them remarked yesterday, "Idaho is a pretty good country, the climate is somewhat frigid, but it will be no colder this winter for gamblers than Portland is going to be."

FORFEITED BAIL.—The gamblers and vagrants arrested Wednesday night and a list of whom was published in yesterday morning's issue concluded not to appear in the police court for trial, so their bail of $25 and $50 was declared forfeited. The last two raids has been the means of putting some [illegible]00 into the city treasury, with more to hear from. It might now be in order, while a reform movement is in progress, for the common council and the city attorney to make an endeavor to collect the back liquor licenses, as the defaulting saloon keepers are still delinquent and have paid no attention to the opportunity offered them to compromise and have their cases dismissed.

AFTER MANY DAYS.—On the evening of the [illegible]th of September Luther Davis, a colored man, appeared at the police station and made complaint that Daniel Manley had struck him over the head with a revolver in a saloon at the northwest corner of Stark and Second streets. There was no one present to issue a warrant and Davis, who remarked that he proposed taking a trip to Salem, took his departure, saying he would attend to the matter some other time. Several days since he did so by [illegible] the arrest of Manley in Justice [illegible]'s court on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. On examination Manley was held to await the action of the grand jury on $300 bonds.

THE [illegible].—Justice Tuttle is still busily engaged in trying to settle the war in Gander Ridge. Yesterday it was James Day who occupied the attention of the court. James is accused of assault and battery on Wm O. Allen, the house mover, in shoving him. The case was heard and taken under advisement. To-day James Phillips is to be tried for assault and battery on Mr Allen. Yesterday morning the Holland domicile was moved on to the disputed strip of land and that of Mrs Day off of it. This it is said took about fifteen minutes time. The next addition of the case is awaited for with interest.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE LITTLE ONES.—Being under the impression that Mellis Bros & Co were still in the dry and fancy goods business, one of the largest New York importing houses sent them a large consignment of dolls. The firm has no earthly use for them, but they happening to arrive just as the fair begins here, Mellis & Co, concluding it to be an excellent advertisement, decided to give them away as long as the fair lasts. Each purchase of $[illegible] worth of goods or over will be accompanied by a doll. They range in value all the way to $5 and will be distributed according to amount of purchase.

BUTCHER CART WRECKED.—A butcher cart was wrecked in the plaza yesterday afternoon about [illegible]30. A horse caused all the trouble by running away from the upper end of town. The animal came down Fourth street and through the plaza, where it collided with a tree, leaving all there was of the cart except the shafts. A spectator in speaking of the accident remarked: "The tree knocked the cart so high and sprung the axles so bad that the wheels couldn't stand still for some minutes." The shafts and horse turned up somewhere in the vicinity of slabtown.

THE OTHER BOY AGAIN.—In the police court yesterday a boy named Price was tried for throwing a stick of wood against Mrs Bryan's house in Fourth street gulch. He proved it was another boy who threw the missile. It appears the other boy was arrested at the same time Price was, but did not appear for trial, choosing rather to forfeit the $[illegible] bail which his parents put up for him. The complaining witness's testimony was also only to the effect that Price was among the crowd from whence the stick came. So this case was dismissed.

BARBERS' PROTECTIVE UNION.—The barbers of this city held a meeting last evening to perfect the organization of a protective union. The following officers were elected: George Goodrich, president; Charles Lague, vice-president; A. P. Butler, recording secretary; H. Alphonse, treasurer; L. Isaacs, financial secretary.

DEATHS AT UNION.—W. W. Baird, of Union, while driving across an irrigating ditch on Tuesday last, was thrown from his buggy, falling on his head and shoulders, and sustaining injuries from which he died the next morning. A. L. Saunders, a merchant of Union and ex-sheriff of Union county, died at his residence on Tuesday last after a short illness. Both were prominent and respectable citizens. The funerals took place yesterday, that of Mr Baird under the auspices of the Masons and that of Mr Saunders under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, of which fraternities they were honored members.

LITT'S ELEGANT ESTABLISHMENT.—The extensive improvements going on for some time past at Litt's are now entirely completed. The private reception and fitting rooms are furnished in a style of luxury and magnificence never before attempted here, and which the elite of the city say are not excelled by anything of the kind in the United States. Mr Litt has spared no expense, as is evidenced by the large mirrors, rich carpets and other fittings to correspond, which adorn his rooms, where he is now ready to receive his patrons in a style which affords him gratification.

CHEAP AND CHEAPER.—A number of young men employed in the various railroad offices are kicking themselves because they subscribed with a travelling agent for sets of Chambers's Encyclopedia which they were to receive at the low price of $30 bound in sheep or $25 bound in cloth. After making the contract they found out that they could purchase the same books at Gill's on the same terms as to payment for $21 a set in sheep or $18 in cloth.

FERRY COMPANY ORGANIZED.—Mention was made Tuesday that articles of incorporation of the Albina Ferry company had been filed. Yesterday the company organized with a capital stock of $50,000 and elected the following officers: J. B. Montgomery, president; Holt C. Wilson, treasurer; I. M. Willis, secretary, and W. H. Foster, manager. The new company has got a franchise to land on each side of the river.

FAT STOCK SHOW.—The North Pacific Domestic and Fat stock show opens on Wednesday next, the 13th inst. The show will be a much grander affair than that of last year, as it is expected that fully double the number of horses, cattle, etc., will be on exhibition. The buildings are being put in a state of preparation to accommodate all the stock brought. The fair will close on the 21st.

Y. M. C. A. COURSE.—The programme for a series of entertainments consisting of music, practical talks and lectures, to be given by the Y. M. C. A., will doubtless commend itself to popular approval. Tickets for the course are but $1, as the intention is to collect no more than will simply meet the expense. The programme will give good entertainment for many evenings.

TEMPERANCE AT THE TABERNACLE.—Next Sunday evening, Mrs. M. B. Reese, the national organizer of the W. C. T. U., will address the citizens of Portland on temperance at the tabernacle. All should hear the eloquent lady. Services at [illegible]. All invited.

THE EAST SIDE.

STREET LAMPS VS. WATER.

On Monday evening last the common council of East Portland received and adopted the following report from the committee on fire and water:

Gentlemen:—Your committee on fire and water have had the subject of lighting the street lamps for the coming year under consideration and would respectfully report that until the tax which is yet to be levied for the coming fiscal year commencing November 1, 1886, can be used there will be no fund whatever for this purpose. From the inquiries made of the city treasurer and the auditor we find that the general fund is already exhausted and there will be no money to pay the ordinary expenses of the city government already provided for by city ordinances for the month of October nor for the coming fiscal year after November 1, until the taxes can be collected.

The general fund tax last year amounted to $[illegible] 62, a portion of which became delinquent and is yet uncollected. Of this amount $[illegible] was paid for water, leaving, when the full amount shall be collected, but $3[illegible] for other purposes. This immense drain on the general fund of nearly one half leaves but a small amount for lights or any other purposes, and if the city should be as unfortunate in the decisions on the questions in litigation for the past two years and which may be decided during the coming year as it was last year, the general indebtedness of the city will be largely increased.

Your committee would recommend that the council determine the smallest number of lights that can be used with due regard to the convenience of the greatest number of people, and when the general appropriation ordinance for the coming year is considered the largest amount possible for this purpose, with due regard to other interests of the city, be appropriated, and where the lamps are to be used and after their number and location are determined your committee be instructed to advertise for bids for lighting the same. Your committee can see no way for providing street lights during the month of October, but after November 1st, by anticipating the tax to be levied, some provision can be made for this purpose, but large appropriations could be made available for this purpose if the amount paid for water could be reduced. And your committee would recommend that, as the city attorney has decided that the city is not compelled to take hydrants, that your committee be instructed to discontinue the use and disconnect from the mains all except (12) twelve hydrants.

J. K. LAING,
J. HUMPHREY,
ALEX. McAFEE,
Committee on Fire and Water.

This action on the part of the council reduces the water tax to $1440 per annum and increases the amount available for street lamps $[illegible]0 per annum.

DEATH OF JOHN DILLMAN.

Mr John Dillman, who fell from a wood wagon in the woods on the Sandy road on Tuesday morning and received such serious injuries, died at his residence in this city at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Up to [illegible] o'clock the evening previous it was thought by his family and friends that he might be able to pull through, but a burning fever set in soon afterwards and he grew rapidly worse and suffered intense agony until death came to his relief. Mrs Dillman has been sick and confined to the house for nearly three weeks and has not yet recovered. The deceased was 54 years of age yesterday. He leaves a family of six—four daughters and two sons, the youngest 15 years of age. The remains will be taken to Fourth Plain, Clarke county, W. T., to-day, where the funeral ceremonies will take place.

RECOVERING.

The many friends of Conductor Wilson of the Oregon & California railroad passenger train will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from his late attack of fever, and was able to take a short buggy ride yesterday, the first in four weeks. Although yet very weak he hopes to be ready to report for duty in a short time.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. E. A. Banks of Wilholt Springs is visiting with Mrs. D. J. Leathers.

Mrs. S. B. Hock returned yesterday from a four weeks visit to Marion and Salem.

Mrs. C. H. Bar[illegible] of Lebanon came down yesterday on a short visit to her mother Mrs. Riley of this city.

Elder C. I. Boy[illegible] left on last evening's train to join [illegible] at this place at Albany where they are to [illegible] a series of religious meetings.

Rev. [illegible] and family of Eugene city came down yesterday to spend a short time visiting friends in this city and Portland. They are the guests of Mr and Mrs C. H. Hill, cor. 10th and G streets.

Mr John Summers returned on Wednesday from a three weeks trip to Eastern Oregon. He has [illegible] most of the time at Haycreek, Crook county, [illegible] Prineville. He reports everything [illegible] in that section, but says that everything is very dry and stockmen getting anxious for rain.

MAKE WIDE DRAWS

PORTLAND, Oct. [illegible]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN.

All citizens of Portland and Multnomah county with [illegible] an exception wish a bridge across the river here, but there are many who do not ask at the cost of a poorly constructed one with a [illegible] to our harbor, especially that part that lies above the bridge.

Congress at its last session made an appropriation of $[illegible] to remove obstructions from the channel at Ross Island. Now what good will that do if the river is obstructed below that point by a bridge that cannot be safely passed by ships?

The bill authorizing the construction of the Morrison street bridge as it passed the legislature provides among other things that the bridge shall not obstruct or impede the free navigation of the river.

Now the proper way to proceed, it seems to me, is to refer the plans to Maj. Jones, U. S. engineers, for his approval before work is commenced. This will prevent any loss to the bridge company and endless and costly law suits hereafter. No person should object to this. The United States engineer officers have made such works a study, and on their approval of the plans, draws, etc., it would not be probable any trouble would arise hereafter from the building of this work. It should be had by all means. The Portland board of trade should take action in this matter.

OBSERVER.

THE PRINTERS AND SCHWAB BROS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN.

R. H. Schwab stated at a meeting of the city council Wednesday night that his trouble with the typographical union was occasioned because of his employing a young lady printer who was supporting her mother. To this the union objected. The union has never objected to his employing her. It has never asked him to discharge her. What the union objects to is the unfair wages she is receiving. He pays her but little more than half what other offices pay lady printers who have worked the same length of time at the trade. He is publishing the compiled ordinances of the city—a $[illegible] job—which was never opened for bids, and giving this young lady printer, who supports her mother, a chance to do so at wages but little more than half paid by the other printing offices of the city. The printers union is fully justified in petitioning the city council to not award this firm city printing because of the manifest injustice to the taxpayers, publishers and printers of Portland.

W. W. COPELAND,
Pres. Multnomah Typographical Union.

ELOCUTIONARY CLASS.

Miss Birrnie De Forest, teacher of elocution in the Willamette university, will form a class in elocution in Portland. Miss De Forest will be at 88 Jefferson street on Friday and Saturday of this week. Any desiring to enter the class will call at that time.

THE MECHANICS' FAIR.

Opened Last Night Under Most Promising Auspices.

PAVILION CROWDED WITH EXHIBITS

Music by the Second Cavalry (U. S.)—1200 People in Attendance—Promise of the Best Season in the History of the Fair.

The Mechanics' fair opened last night under circumstances which promise an exceptionally interesting and successful season. This fair is the eighth of the series of exhibitions which began in 18[illegible] in the old market building on Madison street, and it was generally remarked by those in attendance last night that no previous opening had ever been so favorable. There is still much to do in the way of preparation and organization, but while no department is complete as yet, all are better forward than usual on the day of opening, and all are attractive. The exhibit of needlework and ladies' fancy work is exceptionally pretty, and when complete, as it will be by to-night, or at the latest to-morrow night, it will surpass in quantity and quality any former collection of this kind in the state. The art gallery is not yet open, but an OREGONIAN reporter who was allowed a preliminary peep is able to testify that it will be exceptionally good. It is wholly a loan exhibit, made up of choice works of art from the homes of our citizens. Not more than two-thirds of the several hundred paintings to be exhibited are yet hung, but here, as elsewhere, order is fast growing out of confusion. Every available foot of space will be occupied and the gallery, as usual, will be a favorite feature.

The mercantile exhibits are as large as usual and the press of exhibitors has induced the superintendent to encroach somewhat upon the corridor space. The wisdom of this policy has yet to be proved. The agricultural department, which occupies its old place in the southwest corner of the great building, really should not have been opened last night. There were huge piles of productions of one kind or another, the materials for a very fine display, but all was disorder and confusion, and the throng of visitors only delayed and hindered the work of arrangement, which was in active progress throughout the evening.

A novel and interesting feature in the main hall, lower floor, is a complete printing office in full operation. The press is a handsome single-cylinder [illegible] brought [illegible] from New York by the state printer-elect, Mr. F. C. Baker, and the type, etc., and compositors are from the office of Baker's Rural Spirit in this city. A daily paper devoted to the interests of the fair will be issued each day, the work to be done during exhibition hours, and will be one of the features of the fair.

THE MUSIC.

The Second U. S. cavalry band from the Walla Walla barracks, composed of twenty-three men, have been engaged to furnish a programme of ten numbers each session of the fair. Last night their selections [illegible] excel[illegible] the large attendance showing their appreciation of the music by waiting until the last piece was played. This band is unquestionably the most popular in the Northwest. The programme for to-night's music is as follows:

March—State Militia Review	Kopetz
Nocturne—Religioso Monastery Bells	Weley
Overture—Diadem	Hermann
Piccolo solo—Bird of Paradise, Mr Sattmer	Dr Caro
Torchlight march	Meyerbeer
PART II
Overture—[illegible]	Keler Bela
Waltz—From Beggar Student	Millocker
Selection—Mikado	Sullivan
Andante—Fifth Symphony	Beethoven
Comic Tattoo	Fahrbach

Conductor M. C. Meyrolles has arranged a wire stand placed at the back of his chair, where will be displayed cards bearing the figure representing the number of the selection to be next played.

THE FLORAL EXHIBIT.

This department of the fair excels by far any previous year, and even now is almost complete. Over the main entrance three large stars are suspended with festoons of evergreens joining each point. To the right of the main archway is a large carpet bed with several handsome designs worked in variegated leaved plants, some 4000 having been used in this production. The most noticeable figure is a large green lizard, quite life like in its coloring and accurate outlines. The southwest corner of the hall is devoted to a large variety (some thirty eight in number) of the different evergreen shrubs and plants. The south side is a very complete and handsome bed of potted plants rising from a bank of immense begonias, coleus and pepperonias to palms, banana plants and other large specimens, among which may be mentioned a very fine plant of the rare Brazilian hair tree and a Myrtle lime bearing fruit strongly resembling tiny oranges. In the southeast corner is a handsome group of assorted plants, and in the northeast corner is the grotto with three waterfalls of the real article tumbling down from a rocky fern covered canyon. To the left of the entrance is another bed of assorted plants, among which is a tall graceful bamboo tree, a most perfect camilla with three beautiful wax like blossoms and a large variety of cacti. In the center are three beds of potted plants, one being a very full collection of ferns, over which a fountain throws perpetual showers. The center piece is a carpet bed handsomely arranged in shaded colors. The whole hall is beautifully decorated with evergreens, the walls and pillars being hidden by a profusion of wreaths and sprays.

HOME PRODUCTIONS AND MANUFACTURES.

This department is unusually well filled, though the absence of many important industries which in former years have contributed to the interest of the fair is detected by old fair goers. THE AGRICULTURAL MACHINERY DEPARTMENT

In the machinery hall Staver & Walker have almost the entire east end of the building, having the largest space of any one exhibitor. They have on exhibition a full line of Studebaker's fine buggies and carriages; also a J. I. Case traction engine, "Agitator" threshing machine, Empire folding binder, mower, and gang and sulky plows; a Ross cutter, Bissell's chilled plows, a Keystone cider mill, a Coldwater cart, a rectangular churn, a California business buggy and a Hoosier runner press drill.

Frank Bros. come next to Staver & Walker. They display a Gaar, Scott & Co.'s traction engine, a "Peerless" separator, a Walter A. Woods twine binding harvester, an Havana press drill and a Rock Island gang and sulky plow.

The Northwestern Manufacturing company, of Stillwater, Minn., come next and have a traction engine, a 36-inch—"Minnesota Chief"—separator, and a self-binder.

Knapp, Burrell & Co. join on to Frank Bros.' exhibit, and have a Buffalo Pitt's separator, a Deering binder, a McCormick binder, two handsome Oliver chilled plows, a Cassidy sulky, Moline plows, gang and sulky, a Flying Dutchman sulky plow, Garden city plows, Bain wagons, a Pacific fan mill, a Keystone cider mill, a Magic feed mill, a Baldwin cutter, a Vegetable cutter, a Lillie butter worker, a Wide West seed sower, a Doty washer, an American coffee mill, and in the gallery a full line of buggies, carts and wagons.

E. J. Hughes, agent for Russell & Co., Massillon, Ohio, exhibits a handsome nickle-plated improved traction engine, and a Massillon separator; but he has not got his full exhibit in place yet.

W. H. Mitchell, agent for Mitchell, Lewis & Co., has farm and spring wagons, buckboards, carriages, road carts, a Canton clipper tricycle, gang and walking plows, a Canton chilled plow, an Ideal feed mill, and a keystone cider mill.

F. Born has two improved S. A. Woods' flooring and matching machines, a moulding machine and a joiner on exhibition.

In the extreme east end of the hall the Portland Glass Decorative works have a sand blast, which will be in full running order to-day.

Thos. Walker has a very complete little machine which he calls the Universal bevel cutter.

NOTES.

The officers and attendants of the fair this year have adopted a badge, which consists of a piece of white ribbon with "Mechanics' Fair, 1886," printed in gold letters across it. This is a very good idea, for it materially assists people in finding the proper officials.

The board of directors have accepted an offer made by Gen. Gibbon to loan the articles of capitulation and a number of other relics of the closing scene of the war at Appomattox between Gens. U. S. Grant and Robert E. Lee. They will be kept in a tent, over which a soldier will stand guard and charge ten cents for admission, the proceeds to go for the benefit of the Charleston sufferers.

SPECIAL EXHIBITS.

E. R. BEBLOW.

With the opening night there could not be expected a complete display, particularly from those who had a great deal to do to perfect the same. In this particular may be noted E. R. Beblow, the furrier, who will be found at his old stand in the west end of the gallery. No exhibit will be appreciated more than this, and it will be one in which the ladies will take the greatest interest.

GARRISON'S SEWING MACHINES.

It would be an incomplete fair without Garrison, who has been there on all occasions. While Mrs. Winne is now at the head of the concern, Mr. Garrison will give his experience and time toward making the display of Household, Domestic and other machines handled. The display is on the north side of the gallery and it is a great improvement over former exhibits. Competent assistants are present to explain the workings of the machines.

W. FRIEDLANDER.

Though not the largest, it will be noticeably the only exhibit of the kind—that of W. Friedlander whose display in the west end (gallery) of clocks is indeed attractive. There are some beautiful and antique designs in wall timepieces.

THE WEST SHORE.

Pressure of business at the work rooms of the West Shore has necessitated the absence of the usual meritorious exhibit made by Mr. L. Samuels. This is to be regretted, as no exhibit attracts more attention than the engraving done by the West Shore company. Strangers and our local people as well, are always welcome at the rooms of the company, corner Second and Yamhill streets.

WILZINSKI BROS.

Are as usual present, with samples of tobacco leaf, which though it will not please the ladies, the gentlemen will find it worthy of notice.

PUBLIC MEETING—GAMBLING.

PORTLAND, Oct. 7, 1886.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Your announcement in this morning's OREGONIAN that the law against gamblers was going to be enforced in earnest was joyous news to every lover of order, sobriety and well-doing, and your suggestion of support of the officers by the people is timely and to the point. Let some of our leaders in reform have a rousing public meeting called and back these officers with a moral power that will not only give them courage and strength but strike terror to the hearts of all evil doers.

After all, if the people are indifferent as to the enforcement of the laws against vice, why should the officers be wide awake to keep down crime when they get nothing but curses from those they prosecute, and indifference and apathy from the people who are benefited? By all means, let us have the meeting and give the officers our moral support; then if it is not well attended, let the prohibitionists and [illegible] hold their peace. There is moral power enough in Portland to-day to enforce even prohibition [illegible] would but come to the surface and act.

And, by the way, while these officers are at this good work of putting down gambling can't they do something towards regulating the saloons to obey the [illegible] laws in regard to minors drinking and lounging about saloons, the selling of liquor to drunken men and habitual drunkards, etc.? I am inclined to think that if the people undertake to back the officers in the gambling prosecutions they would like to have the job of backing them in the whole business.

CUMTUX.

MISTAKEN IMPRESSION.

PORTLAND, Oct. 7.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In yesterday's OREGONIAN a statement appeared to the effect that several of the applicants for admission to the bar passed by the skin of their teeth and that the Portland boys did fairly well. As only three were admitted besides the Portland boys, the impression intended to be conveyed seems to have been that all except the Portland boys that passed did so by the skin of their teeth. I think the Portland boys are willing to admit that, with one exception, the honors were pretty evenly divided.

ONE OF THE APPLICANTS.

[No such impression was intended to be conveyed.]

Hygienic and nourishing: Ghirardelli's Cocoa. Cheaper and better than the imported.

FREIGHTS—Fair tonnage movement for the week. The Auckland and the Astracan arrived with prior charters. The Arthurstone sailed with salmon and grain and the Seaforth with wheat. On spot the Xenia accepted a lumber freight, the John Gambles, iron, and Reaper, wood, grain business, both on private terms. The en route list has received a few additions. Iron in port generally ask 40s. against the probably obtainable rate of 37s 6d.

REGISTERED TONNAGE STATEMENT.

In port—Finished with grain	1,618
Loading or to load	19,781
Iron disengaged	8,172
Loading miscellaneous	4,275	—33,816
On way—Due Oct.-Nov.	9,001
Due later on	15,210	—24,301

WHEAT—Receipts for the week were 2314 tons valley and 9138 tons Walla Walla, against 1725 and 10,466 tons the same week last year and 2040 and 8473 tons the preceding week this year. The increase the past week was in valley and caused by the arrival of some to fill a cargo sold two weeks ago. The movement promises to be small in the near future as the market is receding and sellers are not accepting lower prices proferred.

The foreign wheat markets are further depressed by offerings of native wheats in excess of anticipations, by the large visible supply on this side, which increased nearly 200,000 bushels last week, by the ease in securing to arrive and prompt shipment parcels and by excessive arrivals and offerings of American flours. While these are strong causes they are nearly all of a temporary character yet capable of continuing in force for some time to come. Everybody seems now to have lost all faith in any early price improvement while many are predicting things two months ago not hinted at. English farmers deliveries are now nearly up to what they were a year ago, British imports are greater, and the quantity afloat is 1,150,000 qrs greater, increasing 60,000 qrs the past week. Of that afloat to the United Kingdom on the 20th ult. 6,295,000 bushels was Pacific coast, 2,220,000 Atlantic, 4,745,000 Indian, 1,250,000 Chilean, 80,000 South Russia and 74,000 sundry. A year previous the quantity was made up of 5,600,000 Pacific, 904,000 Atlantic, 8,040,000 Indian, 935,000 Chilean 200,000 South Russia, and 1,553,000 Australian and sundry. Thus there is an increase in all but the two last, Chile and the Atlantic side being heavy exporters at present. North Russia cuts no figure at this time, and the whole of Russia is demanding prices quite above those of the consuming markets. Present weak points in wheat are many and too prominent to call for long mention. Not until the American visible ceases to increase and exports from this country fall off can there be any improvement. Even then other causes may arise to prevent recovery. It is believed Indian shipments will shortly show a falling off, not only because silver is advancing but that country has already exported in excess of crop and export comparisons.

The Chicago wheat market continues on the downward grade. We quote a few figures which may be of interest as comparisons: Last year on October 7 it closed 86⅛c, 88½c and 91⅞@90c for October, November and December, about 14½c higher than at present. It then improved to October 14, reaching 90c and over. February last year it had sold as low as 73c. In 1884 it was 76⅛@77c on October 8, lowest prices being 72⅛@73⅜ on the 18th. Early in November it was 74⅛@74⅛c and on the 10th 70⅞@72c. Lowest December prices were 69⅛@70⅜c, and highest 70⅞@70⅞c. That market is now left pretty much to itself, operators having too much against them.

San Francisco keeps up quite well in the face of other markets, the material shortage from anticipated yield and the necessities of shippers being helpful influences. Sellers see a large fleet, some 50,000 tons more than at this time last year, at hand under charter and naturally calculate it must be loaded. They demand high prices for wheat, and what is better, get about all demanded. Shippers have been and must now be working at a decided loss, such as 35@37s 6d ships in a 30s market can make. There's no show to even up, either, for $1 32¼ wheat and 30s freight means 34s 4d wheat in harbor. Futures have lately been in light dealing.

Our market is now very difficult to quote. Unlike San Francisco, our shippers stand in no material need and can afford to hang back, talking low prices, which holders have not so far acknowledged. The spot fleet is quite well provided for, and that soon to arrive either have lower charters or are open. Recent buys of Walla Walla greatly leased necessities. During the past week and near the close Walla Walla sold $1 17½@1 16¼, closing with $1 15 as best offer and with some $1 12½@1 15 limits out. Possibly a fraction better than $1 15 could just now be had, but it could not be counted upon a day ahead. Valley has been refused $1 25 in the last days, limits being frequently down to $1 22½, which figure promises to soon be established. There would now seem to be little in the way of lower prices, and no doubt the coming week will see them, as ships are holding very stiffly.

The following is a comparative statement of grain deliveries from English farmers, imports into the United Kingdom and quantities afloat for the weeks ended as below:

FARMERS' DELIVERIES.

MILLSTUFFS—Arrivals fell away during the week but none went to San Francisco, local stocks being kept full. Demands are quiet and values unchanged although less firm. Quote jobbing values: Bran, $14@15; chop, $22@24; shorts, $15@18. Ground barley sells out at $24 and oil meal at $32 50.

GREEN FRUIT—Apples in heavy movement and weak. San Francisco taking some but shipping margins are small, Idaho, Montana and more eastern points have taken freely. Choice are quoted 40@50c, inferior not saleable. Very few pears being received; quoted 75c@$1. Grapes sell at 75@85c, some choice California going higher. A car of Sicily lemons came in during the week. They are quoted $10 50, California $8. The present is believed to be a poor time to sell apples that possess keeping qualities and growers will do well to consider the chances of holding.

EGGS—Light arrivals for the week and 30c was obtained one day for small lots. The quotations for the most of the week has been 25c, any higher demands curtailing the request. The market closes firm at 25c.

POULTRY—Chickens have been in dull sale, good going at $2 60, and the range being $2@3. Large supplies of wild game depress the poultry market. Ducks, geese and turkeys dull at $3@4; $6@7 and 10@12c.

BUTTER—The market is very steady at 22½@25c for choicest roll, supplies being no more than adequate. Solid is in full supply, ranging from 15 to 22½c as to grade. The usual figure for the best sorts is 20c.

HAY—Market but fairly supplied with choice, which brings $10@12, as to needs. Inferior dull and slow at $7@9.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Government bonds were dull and easier. Reading also became extremely active and strong, but just previous to the close the market declined and closed weak.

Bartholdi's Statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World" will be a reminder of personal liberty for ages to come. On just as sure a foundation has Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" been placed, and it will stand through the cycles of time as a monument to the physical emancipation of thousands, who by its use have been relieved from consumption, consumptive night-sweats, bronchitis, coughs, spitting of blood, weak lungs, and other throat and lung affections.

ROSEBURG ITEMS.

ROSEBURG, Oct. 6.

Dr. G. W. Hoover is confined with serious sickness at his residence.

Our sheriff, clerk and lawyers have been very busy for the last ten days.

Hon. J. C. Fullerton returned from Portland last night, looking hale and hearty.

F. M. Gabbert, formerly of Myrtle creek, but now merchant of Day's creek, has been in our city for a few days this week.

Leonard Howe, a former resident of this county, is again among us, having just returned from Colfax, W. T., where he is largely interested in farming.

Hon. Binger Hermann has returned from his visit to Fort Klamath, fully convinced that it would be extremely unsafe to remove the military from the vicinity of the Indian reservation.

Job Hatfield, an honored and highly respected old resident of Scottsburg precinct, spent several days in our city within the past week. It would be well if the world had more such men.

Hon. F. P. Hogan, who has been south on a prospecting tour for rich quartz and gold mines, has returned home and reports the late mineral discoveries rich with the precious metals.

The Owens failure will cause many of our hard-working farmers considerable trouble, quite a number of whom are already sued for large amounts on divers security debts, while others will lose much of their summer's crop.

E. L. Derby, who arrived here on the 27th ult. from Tacoma, died last night at the McClallen house. He was a resident of San Francisco, and while on his way home was taken so sick on the train that he was compelled to stop off here. Since then he has been under the care of the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member. His remains will be interred to-morrow.

Our city election took place last Monday, at which the following named persons were elected: Board of trustees: H. C. Stanton, John Kast, O. L. Willis, John P. Sheridan and Thomas Grisdale; marshal, John Howard; recorder, T. Ford, and treasurer, —— Fisher. The election was a very quiet one. The old board of trustees met last night and turned matters over to the new board, who organized by electing H. C. Stanton chairman.

Get the Best

Is a good motto to follow in buying medicine, as well as in everything else. By the universal satisfaction it has given, and by the many remarkable cures it has accomplished, Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven itself unequaled for building up and strengthening the system, and for all diseases arising from or promoted by impure blood. Do not experiment with any unheard of and untried article which you are told is "just as good," but be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I consider Hood's Sarsaparilla the best medicine I ever used. It gives me an appetite and refreshing sleep, and keeps the cold out." JOHN S. FOGG, 106 Spruce Street, Portland, Me.

"I was generally run down; had no appetite, and felt the need of a good tonic. I have taken other medicines, but never used any that did me so much good as Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have now a good appetite and feel renewed all over. I am better than I have been for years." E. H. RAND, 11 West Ninth st., Oswego, N. Y.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla takes less time and quantity to show its effect than any preparation I ever heard of." MRS. C. A. HUBBARD, N. Chili, N. Y.

20 Years Study.

THOUSANDS of LADIES Gladly Testify that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Does Everything that is Claimed for It.

Its purpose is solely for the legitimate relief of pain, and healing of those painful complaints and diseases so common to our MOTHERS, WIVES and DAUGHTERS.

Price $1, at Druggists. In Liquid, Pill or Lozenge form, (6 for $5.) Either of the latter sent by mail secure from observation, on receipt of price. Mrs. Pinkham's "Guide to Health" and confidential circular mailed to any lady sending address and stamp to Lynn, Mass. Mention this Paper.

Ladies' Weakness.

Mr. T. H. Gafford of Church Hill, Md., is so thankful for the restoration of of his wife to complete health, that he is willing to certify to the fact and manner of her cure. To Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham: This is to certify to the grand effects of your Vegetable Compound. My wife was suffering from a terrible disease which seemed to baffle the skill of the best medical men. She was in a poor, languid, depressed, nervous condition. We finally concluded to try your Vegetable Compound, and to our great surprise the half of one bottle had not been taken before there seemed to be a thorough change in her whole condition, and now to-day she is in good health and entirely relieved from all former depressed feelings.

T. H. GAFFORD and wife.

PHYSICAL SALVATION.

"Blessed Art Thou above all Things."

Some of the expressions of gratitude for the physical regeneration wrought by Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound read like the rejoicings of converts after a religious revival. It brings Salvation to the body. A lady in Franklin Parish, La., writes: "I tried one bottle of your Compound for Prolapsus Uteri and Leucorrhea. I never had anything in my line that did me so much good. I was hardly able to walk about without difficulty. I could not step upon anything without pain. When I think how much good that one bottle did me, I feel as if I could fall on my knees to you and say. Blessed art thou above all others, for thou art one of the greatest benefactors that woman ever had."

CAUTION.

"If the inhabitants of great cities could see the filth that is concealed in the water which they use, and trace every drop and particle to its source, disgust and nausea would be sufficient protection."

New York Times, July 20, 1885.

"The purity of APOLLINARIS offers the best security against the dangers which are common to most of the ordinary drinking waters."

BLACK WOLF.

Or Black Leprosy, is a disease which is considered incurable, but it has yielded to the curative properties of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC—now known all over the world as S. S. S. Mrs. Bailey, of West Somerville, Mass. near Boston, was attacked several years ago with this hideous black eruption, and was treated by the best medical talent, who could only say that the disease was a species of and consequently incurable. It is impossible to describe her sufferings. Her body from the crown of her head to the soles of her feet was a mass of decay, masses of flesh rotting off and leaving great cavities. Her fingers festered and three or four nails dropped off at one time. Her limbs contracted by the fearful ulceration, and for several years she did not leave her bed. Her weight was reduced from 125 to 60 lbs. Perhaps some faint idea of her condition can be gleaned from the fact that three pounds of Cosmoline or ointment were used per week in dressing her sores. Finally the physicians acknowledged their defeat by this Black Wolf, and commended the sufferer to her all-wise Creator.

Her husband hearing wonderful reports of the use of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC (S. S. S.), prevailed on her to try it as a last resort. She began its use under protest, but soon found that her system was being relieved of the poison, as the sores assumed a red and healthy color, as though the blood was becoming pure and active. Mrs. Bailey continued the S. S. S. until last February; every sore was healed; she discarded chair and crutches, and was for the first time in twelve years a well woman. Her husband, Mr. C. A. Bailey, is in business at 17½ Blackstone Street, Boston, and will take pleasure in giving the details of this wonderful cure. Send to us for Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases, mailed free.

BLACK WOLF.

Or Black Leprosy, is a disease which is considered incurable, but it has yielded to the curative properties of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC—now known all over the world as S. S. S. Mrs. Bailey, of West Somerville, Mass. near Boston, was attacked several years ago with this hideous black eruption, and was treated by the best medical talent, who could only say that the disease was a species of and consequently incurable. It is impossible to describe her sufferings. Her body from the crown of her head to the soles of her feet was a mass of decay, masses of flesh rotting off and leaving great cavities. Her fingers festered and three or four nails dropped off at one time. Her limbs contracted by the fearful ulceration, and for several years she did not leave her bed. Her weight was reduced from 125 to 60 lbs. Perhaps some faint idea of her condition can be gleaned from the fact that three pounds of Cosmoline or ointment were used per week in dressing her sores. Finally the physicians acknowledged their defeat by this Black Wolf, and commended the sufferer to her all-wise Creator.

Her husband hearing wonderful reports of the use of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC (S. S. S.), prevailed on her to try it as a last resort. She began its use under protest, but soon found that her system was being relieved of the poison, as the sores assumed a red and healthy color, as though the blood was becoming pure and active. Mrs. Bailey continued the S. S. S. until last February; every sore was healed; she discarded chair and crutches, and was for the first time in twelve years a well woman. Her husband, Mr. C. A. Bailey, is in business at 17½ Blackstone Street, Boston, and will take pleasure in giving the details of this wonderful cure. Send to us for Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases, mailed free.
